FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY ACTS

SUBJECT: BARKER/KARPIS GANG
BREMER KIDNAPPING

FILE NUMBER: 7-576

SECTION: SUB 3 Section Sub A

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

THE BEST COPY OBTAINABLE IS INCLUDED IN THE REPRODUCTION OF
THESE DOCUMENTS.
PAGES INCLUDED THAT ARE BLURRED, LIGHT, OR OTHERWISE
DIFFICULT TO READ ARE
THE RESULT OF THE
CONDITION OF THE ORIGINAL DOCUMENT.
NO BETTER COPY CAN BE REPRODUCED.

Little Rock, Arkansas November 13, 1938

Mrs.Goldstein, Akers Will Be Tried Soon

Trials of Herbert ("Dutch") akers former Hot Springs chief of detectives, on a charge of conspiracy to harter Thomas Nathan Norris, member of the notorious Alfred ("Bonny") Lamb gang, and Mrs. Grace Goldstein, op-erator of houses of prostitution in Hot Springs, on a Mann act charge were advanced yesterday by United States Attorney Fred A. Isgrig to December 5.

The trials previously had been arranged for February. The change was made possible by continuation of a civil case involving constitutionality of the 1937 bituminous coal act which of the 1937 bituminous coal act which had been scheduled for December 5.

With an early trial scheduled, Akers and Mrs. Goldstein will remain in the Pulaski county jail rather than being removed to federal prisons to begin two-year terms for conspiracy to hartwo-year terms for conspiracy to harbor Alvin Karpis, one-time Public Enemy No. 1, Mr. Isgrig said. They were left when Joe Wakelin, former Hot Springs police chief, and Cecil B:ock, former Hot Springs police leutenant, convicted with them, were taken to federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan, last week to begin two-ear terms.

Shorter Hearing Anticipated.
Thials of Akers and Mrs. Goldstein on these charges are expected to be much aborter than the Karpis har-much shorter than the Karpis harboring conspiracy trials. They probably will last about two days each. Inspector E. J. Connelley of the Federal Bureau of Investigation said Akers had admitted to F. B. I. agents his guilt in connection with the alleged conspiracy to harbor Norris in Hot Springs from March 15, 1937 to August 16, 1937.

Mrs. Goldstain Tax indicted

Mrs. Goldstein was indicted on a charge of bringing her niece, Margaret, from Blossom, Tex., to her hotel in Hot Springs for immoral purposes in the summer of 1935.

Mr. Isgrig received the following letter of congratulations yesterday fram J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, for his effects in prosecution of Akers, Wakelin, Brock and Mrs. Goldstein:

"Upon my return to Washington after spending several days in New York in connection with three kid-nabing cases which were solved by special agents of the F. B. I., I was delighted to receive your letter of November 1, 1938, with reference to the outcome of the trial of Herbert Akers, Joseph Wakelin, Oscil Brock and Grace Goldstein.

"As you know, I have been much interested in these cases in Hot and since their incer-Agents

Special U.S. Grand Jury Called

A special Federal Grand Jury will convene here January 23 to consider convene here January 23 to consider cases against defendants from all divisions of the Eastern District of Arkansas, United States Attorney Fred A. Isgrig said yesterday. Calling of the special Grand Jury was necessitated by the large number of cases which have developed in recent weeks.

Mr. Isgrig said that not only are there a large number of cases awaiting Grand Jury action but that the number of persons awaiting trial is the largest in several years.

Judge Trimble said he now hai the most crowded docket he has had in the more than a year he has been on the federal bench. They agreed that the two-week Karpis harboring conspiracy trial was responsible for the situation.

7,576-3-18

FROIT THE ARKATSAS DELOCRATT Little Rock, arkansas November 13, 1938.

G-Men's Chief Lauds Isgrig

Prosecuting Attorney Is Thanked for Work in Karpis Case.

Commendation of J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, on the outcome of the trial of the four Hot Spring residents convicted for conspiracy
residents convicted for conspiracy to harbor Alvin Karpis, has been
to harbor Alvin Karpis, has been received by Fred A. Isgrig, U. S. district attorney. A letter from the chief of the FBI was received yeachief of the FBI was received yeaterday by Mr. Isgrig, expressing his terday by Mr. Isgrig, expressing his interest in the case and the close
interest in the case and the close interest in the case and the relation he had given it since the attention he had given it since the much interested in these cases in Hoo', Springs and since their inception; I have personally been followtion; I have personally been followtion; I have personally been followtion; I have personally been following the investigations and it has ing the investigations and it been a source of pleasure to the agents working on the cases regardagents working on the cases regarding the co-operation which you esing the co-operation which you esing the co-operation which you esing the co-operation which you essubjects so successfully," he wrote.

"I feel that the relationship of special agents for the FBI with United States attorneys such as you throughout the nation illustrates what can be accomplished through co-ordinated and co-operative effort.

"While you have spent many long hours in connection with the prose-

"While you have spent many long hours in connection with the prosecution of this case, I know you must have the satisfaction that comes with the accomplishment of a difficult task."

ficult task."

Mr. Hoover thanked Mr. Isgrig for the latter's commendation of the agents who participated in the investigation: Inspector Earl J. Cornelley and Special Agents Deniel P. Sullivan, John L. Madala, iel P. Sullivan, B. M. Suttler, R. Shikers, Rufus Coulter, B. A. Damoron and L. M. Chipman.

12-44

Detroit Utticers Grill Doomed Man at Tucker

Doomed Man at Tucker

Three Detroit police officers will go in Eucker prison farm tomorrow to question Buford Goad, alias Joseph Anderson, in connection with ome or more unsolved crimes in Michigan.

The officers arrived in Little Rock late Friday night and remained here yesterday for conferences with state police and other officers. They will remain in the city today, driving to the prison fark tomorrow to question Goad, they said.

Goad, his wife, and two men are under sentence to die in the electric chair next Friday for the murder of Eldon Cooley at Hot Springs.
Goad has admitted, police said, that he was involved in slaying of three men in Indiana and Michigan and hinted, they said, that he had knowledge of other slayings.

The Detroit officers wish to question the condemned man in connection with the disappearance of two men and a woman at Melvindale, Mich., they said. Questioned prior to his, trial on the Hot Springs skying. Goad was said to have declared that he "might talk."

Mail Thieves. Car Stolen in Texas

An automobile found abandoned near Seventh and Ferry streets yesterday morning by Patrolman Anterday and Witherspoon was identified not night as having been stolen Nonight as having a Texas license. The car, bearing a Texas license, was believed to have been the one which followed two men after they which followed the Smith's car.

Cyficers said they were convided the trio had abandoned the Thxas the trio had abandoned the trio had abandoned the 7,516-3-

FROM "THE ARKANSAS GAZETTE" Little Rock, Arkansas November 12, 1938

From the People

(Make your letter as short as possible. If it is more than 500 words, it will be cut or returned. Your name does not have to be published, but don't send an anonymous letter or sign a jictitious name.)

Praises Mr. Isgrig's Handling Of Karpis Conspiracy Case.

To the Editor of the Gazette:

The rendering of a public duty or charge exceptionally and accurately well is apparently only what is expected and as such is not entitled to felicitations and commendations of an unusual nature. I refer specifically to the Alvin Karpis conspiracy trial in federal court in Little Rock. I was present aff through the long, tedious, colorful and ally conducted proceedings, and I will admit that during the 12 days trial I was subjected to the usual conflicting emotions; now he's guilty, now he's not, they are guilty, they are not, score a point here for the defense, now one for the government. Every artifice and device of defense by the skillful lawyers for the defendants registered in my imagination. No credit for the virile and praiseworthy manner each mem-ber of the defense counsel conducted himself is intended in this treatise. From my observations this was one of the most unusual trials I have ever heard of, in that there was not one heard of, in that there was not one creditable contribution in the vast amount of damaging evidence. The obvious conclusion and comment must follow that it was definitely a one-sided contention. But when you consider the deferse took the attitude that the government's evidence was in fact, presumptuous and perverse, you probably have some conception of the monotonous and momentous task the United States district attorney must have en-States district attorney must have en-guntered. That the obvious lack of defense is indeed the greatest offense seemed to be the spearhead of the deseemed to be the spearhead of the defending counsel, placing the district attorney in the light of fighting a phantom. The challenge was accepted by Mr. Fred Isgrig (U. S. D. A.) after eloquent presentation of the defense case to the jury—in story book fashim. Fighnting his feelings by immediately the bwing the gauntlet of greed and averice full in the face of his mythical and destructive enemy, he launched into the most vigorous and inspiring piece the most vigorous and inspiring piece of eloquence ever heard or dreamed of

GOOD!

by this first person singular. Trans-cending the usual dramatics of the cheap performance of a sealot, Mr. Ischeap performance of a sealot, Mr. Isgrig was the quintescense of a public prosecutor, not expressing his feilings and convictions but yours and inme. His contempt for crime was our expression. His plea to the jury for dispression. His plea to the jury for dispression. His plea to the jury for dispression was competent and commendable, but if a speaker on and commendable, but if a speaker on any commendable, but if a speaker on any commendable, but if a speaker on any commendable was ever as amiably dominant and convincing as he. I'll traveling to read or hear about it. Congratulations, Mr. Isgrig, on the commendation and courageous procedution. sumate and courageous pros

Little Rock, Ark

(

FRO! "THE ARKANSAS CAZETTE" Little Rock, Arkansas November 5, 1938

Mast trendy .....

No Appeals By Karpis Case Defendants

Lawyers for four Hot Springs residents sentenced to two years in prison Saturday for conspiracy to harbor Alvin Karpis had made no move to appeal, the convictions when the five-day period allowed to file notice of such action expired yesterday afternoon.

The four said at the Pulaski county jail yesterday that cost of taking an appeal to the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals would be prohibitive.

Herbert ("Dutch") Akers, ormer chief of detectives of Hot Springs, and Cecil Brock, former police lieutenant, Cecil Brock, former police lieutenant, were the last to announce their decisions not to appeal the cases. Lawyers for former Chief of Police Joe Wakelin and Mrs. Grace Goldstein, operator of houses of prostitution in Hot Springs, previously had announced they would not take appeals.

Will Be Moved Seen.

Akers. Wakelin and Erock probably

Will Be Moved Seen.

Akers, Wakelin and Erock probably will be taken to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., today or tomorrow. They may be transferred later at the discretion of the United States attorney general. Mrs. Goldstein probably will be taken to the "female Alcatraz" at Milan, Mich., or the federal prison at Alderson, W. Va.

Jonnie Morris, formerly employed in Mrs. Goldstein's houses of prostitution, is erving a year and a day at Alderson on a similar charge. She pleaded guilty here last spring.

7-576-3-1

Four Karpis Defendants to Accept Terms

Akers and Brock Drop Appeal Plans-All to Begin Sentences.

No appeals will be taken from their two-year sentences for conspiracy to harbor Alvin Karpis at Hot Springs in 1935 and 1936 by the four Hot Springs residents convicted Saturday in Federal court. The period for filing notice of appeal ex-period for filing notice of appeal expires today.

Herbert ("Dutch") Akers, former chief of detectives, and Cecil Brook, former police lieutenant, said today they were not able to obtain funds for an appeal from the Federal court scatences. Joseph Wakelin, former chief of police at Hot Springs, and Mrs. Grace Goldstein, rooming house operator, announced yesterday through their attorneys that they would not appeal the sentence.

The trial at which the four were convicted began October 18 and lasted for 11 days, a jury returning a verdict Saturday afternoon. They were sentenced immediately, each receiving two years, the maximum under the conspiracy statue. All four have been in the Pulaski county jail since their conviction.

The three men will be laken to Leavenworth penitentiary probably four have been in the Philaster ty jail since their conviction.

The three men will be taken to Leavenworth penitentiary, probably tomorrow or Sunday, and Mrs. Goldstein probably will be taken to the federal prison for women at Milan, Mich. although the institution to which she will be taken must be designated by the U.S. attorney general. A previous designation by the attorney general requires that all men convicted in Arkansas and semmen convicted in Arkansas and semmen convicted in Arkansas and semmenced to prison be taken to Leavenworth. Men prisoners formerly enworth. Men prisoners formerly were taken to the Atlanta penitentiary. Their removal to the respective institutions will be in charge of U.S. Marshal Virgil C. Petitie and his deputies.

"ARKANSAS DEMOCRAT"

HOVEMBER 4, 1958

7.576-32

FROM "THE AFKANSAS DEMOCRAT" Little Rock, Arkansas October 30, 1938

Guilty of Aiding Karpis, Four Ask Appeal Bonds; Two-Year Terms Given

Convicted Hot Springs Quartet Spending Week-End in Jail Pending Hearing Monday.

Jury Out 2 Hours

Judge Trimble Immediately Sentences Grace, Akers, Wakelin and Brock to Prison.

Three former Hot Springs police officers and the common law wife of Alvin Karpis, erstwhile public ememy No. 1, listened calmly in federal court here yesterday afternoon as a jury pronounced them guilty of conspiring to harbor the gangster, and spiring to harbor the gangster, and them to two years in federal prison. Those convicted were former Police Chief Joseph Wakelin, former Detective Chief Herbert "Dutch" Detective Chief Herbert "Dutch" Akers, former Police Lieut. Geold-green, "mistress" of houses of "shady reputations.

Their conviction brought to an end a two weeks' trial, one of the most spectacular in Little Rock is recent years.

Three other defendants named in the indictment, which charged conspiracy to harbor the notorious spiracy to harbor the notorious gangster in Hot Springs in 1985-95 when he was wanted for the Blemer kidnaping, last Wednesday received directed verdicts of not guilty. They were Mrs. Al C. Dyer, operator of a Lake Familton boat landing, Morris Loftis caretaker at the landing, and John Stover, Hot Springs airport manager and well-known Arkaness aviate.

Less Than Two Hours. Following closing arguments yesterday by Defense Attorney Grover T. Ownes and Prosecutor Fred A. Isgrig, the case went to the jury composed of two women and 18 men—at 12:35. Deliberations begin and the werdict was at 1:43 p. m., and the verdict

7.576-3-18

After the verdict was read by the elerk, Judge Trimble turned to the four inferendants seated at the table in front of him.

"The defendants will some "The defendants will some "The ward" he said.

Mnk. Goldstein, Wakelin, Akers and Brock, showing no emotion, lined up in front of the bench.

"You have been convicted on this

"You have been convicted on this charge and it is the judgment and sentence of the court that you serve two years in the penitentiary," Judge Trimble said, addressing each defendant.

(Maximum penalty for the offense is two years in prison, plus a fine of $10,000.)

New Trial Is Denied.

The courtroom was thrown into confusion as United States marshals led the prisoners out, taking them to the marshal's office until commitment papers were prepared and they could be transferred to Pulaski county jail They entered the jail at 4:15 p. m.

Defense Attorney Sam Robinson immediately filed a motion for a new trial, which was overruled by Judge Trimble

"Let the record show that the mo-tion was made and denied," Robinson

The crowd filed slowly out, while the attorneys, both defense and government, crowded around Judge Trimble. E. L. McHaney Jr. asked if the prisoners would be allowed to make bail pending an appeal to the circuit court of appeals, and was informed by Judge Trimble that their arguments for bail would be heard tomorrow morning if they desired.

"We'll be here." McHaney said.

Mr. Isgrig said last night that the three men will go to Leavenworth and that Mrs. Goldstein probably will go to the "female Alcatraz," at Milan, Mich.

He said Connie Morris, girl friend

Milan, Mich.

He said Connie Morris, girl friend of Fred Hunter, ally of Karpis, was kept out of the Milan prison through his efforts because she was to young. (She was said to have bein only 16 years old when she pleaded guilty to the conspiracy charge) Cornie is in the women's reformatory at Alderson, W. Va.

Defer Other Charges.

Defer Other Charges.

Mr. Isgrig announced after the trial yesterday that two of the defendants charged with other crimes will not be tried during this term of court.

fendants charged will not be tried during this term will not be tried during this term of court.

Akers faces a charge of conspirations to harbor Thomas Nathan Norsing to harbor Thomas Nathan Norsing to harbor of the Alfred "Sonny! ris, member of the Alfred "Sonny! ris, member of the Alfred "Sonny! ris, member of the Springs in Alfred Faces a Mann Act Crace Goldstein faces a Mann Act Crace Goldstein faces a Mann Act Crace for bringing a girl from Blossom, Tex., to Hot Springs in Blossom, Tex., to Hot Springs in Blossom, Tex., to Hot Springs in Homers of the jury, after 11 Members of the jury, after 12 members of the jury, after

A Exell, Thornburg merchant, Mrs.
M. A Lally, Little Rock retired business woman; Hugh Houston, Little Rock realtor; L. O. Hed, Little Rock lice dealer; Mrs. W. Tillal Adamson, Little Rock clubwoman, A. G. Little Rock Clubwoman, A. G. Little Rock, Fordyce business; man, and Gus Paul, Malvern farmer.

Mrs. W. M. Matthew, Little Rock, and Mrs. L. H. Baker, North Little Rock, alternate jurors, also set through the entire proceedings.

Only Four Defense Witnesses.

The government called about 100 witnesses to the stand, the defense only four, one of whom was Mis. Goldstein.

The trial produced an unusual averay of legal talent.

For the government there was Mr. Isgrig, Leon Catlett and M. H. Gregory, his assistants, and from six to eight FBI special agents (G-Men). All of the special agents (G-Men). All of the special agents are graduates of law schools and all particles of law schools and all particles pated in the investigation which lad up to the trial.

The defendants were represented by Grover T. Owens, Sam Robinson, E. L. McHaney Jr., Drew Bowers, Henry Donham, Little Rock attorneys, and James R. Campbell, Hot Springs, veteran member of the state legislature.

Each day of the trial saw the neys, and salication member of the state Springs, veteran member of the state legislature.

Each day of the trial saw the courtroom filled to capacity with spectators, most of whom were women. Even the corridors were filled Thursday, when Grace Goldstein spent the entire day on the witness stand.

Mrs. Goldstein related how she witness stand.

Mrs. Goldstein related how she witness of the gangster from une, lived with the gangster from une, lived with the gangster from which she admitted she spent as muth as $20,000 of his money. She also told a story of how she and Karpis cared a story of how she and Karpis cared for a horacless baby, coming to Littor a horacless baby, co ment About Freely.

The defendants were convicted upon testimony of many witnesses who told of seeing Wakelin, Brock and Akers visit the Goldstein places when Karpis was living with her, and who told how Karpis and members of his gang went about Hot Springs freely, apparently not the least afraid of apprehension by officers of the law.

With the conviction the G-Men wrote "finis" to the history of the Karpis-Barker gang. All members of the gang either are dead or are serving long sentences in federal prisons. Karpis, himself, is serving life in Abfatraz.

Several of the special agents estimated yisterday that the page of America's criminal history written by this by any had cost he united States Department of Justice as much as a million dollars, and this did not include the indirect costs of their crimes.

Estimates of various officials placed the cost of the trial here at from $15,000 to $25,000. Mr. Isgrig was authority for the lowest figure.

War and the

QUARTET GIVEN TWO YEARS EACH FOR CONSPIRACY

Bond Denied Judge Trimble.

A jury in United States District Court returned a verdict of guilty at 3:30 yesterday afternoon for four Hot Springs residents charged with conspiracy to harbor Alvin Karpis, one time Public Enemy No. 1, in the resort city in 1935 and 1936. The jurors deliberated one hour and 47 minutes.

Federal Judge Trimble sentenced each to two years in a federal penitentiary, the maximum penalty on a conspiracy conviction. Fines in a maximum amount of $10,000 were possible in connection with the convictions but the court assessed only the prison sentences.

Those convicted were: Herbert ("Dutch") Akers, 44, former Hot Springs chief of detectives. Joe Wakelin, 60, former Hot Springs police lieutenant. police/ lieutenant.

Cech Brock, 34, former Hot Springs chief of police.

Mrs. Grace Goldstein, 32, perator of hours of prostitution in Fot Springs and Karpis's common law vife.

Defendants Denied Bond by Court.

Judge Trimble denied defense motions for ball for the defendants and they were taken to the Pulaski county jail by deputy United States marshals. Defense lawyers indicated today they would file notice of appeal within the five-day period allowed for such action. Court rules require that the appeal be perfected within 10 days unless the presiding judge grants a 30-day périod.

The defendants in turn, paled when the verdicts in their respective cases were read by the clerk of the court but otherwise registered no expression of

Mrs. Goldstein, who but a few minemotion. utes before returning to the courtroom for the verdict had expressed unconcern over the outcome, arose and walked before Judge Trimble to await sentenec. Brock and Akers quickly followed. but Wakelin, waring bark glasses and walking with a cane, bad to be assisted.

Members of their families and friends who had sat near them throughout the trial, traiked with them to the United States marshal's office, whence they were removed to the county jail. Mrs. Akers remained alone on a bench in The corridor for everal minutes with head buried in her hands, sobbing. Then she arose and walked down to the marshal's office.

FROLI "THE ARKANSAS CAZETTE" Little Rock, Arkansas October 50, 1938

The verdict came as the trial neared the end of its eleventh day. Final arguments were completed shortly after noon Judge Trimble then made his charge to the jury and turned the case over to the jurors at 12:35. The jurors then went to lunch and returned at 1:45 p. m. to begin deliberations.

Conviction of the four increased to five the number of persons sentenced in the case. Connie Morris, sweetheart of Fred Hunter, Karpis' lieutenant, and once employed in Mrs. Goldstein's houses of prostitution, pleaded guilty to the charge against her last spring and received a year and a day in a federal reformatory.

Three other persons indicted on the charge by the Federal Grand Jury-John Stover, manager of the Hot Springs airport; Mrs. Al C. Dyer, operator of a boat landing near Hot Springs, and Morris Loftis, caretaker at the boat landing-were freed by a directed verdict of not guilty Wednesday.

Convictions Mark Glose Of Karpis-Barker Cases.

Inspector E. J. Connelley of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said conviction of the four were the last in connection with the notorious Karpis-Barker gang which left a trail of murder, kidnapings, mail train robberies and bank robberies throughout the Middle West several years ago.

Alvin Karpis now is serving life sen-tence in Alcatraz prison for kidnaping of William A. Hamm Jr., wealthy St. Paul, Minn., brewer June 15, 1933.

Akers resigned from the Hot Springs police force in July, 1937, because of ill health after being chief of detectives 11 years.

Wakelin, after holding the position as chief of police for 10 years, was suspended during the investigation into the alleged third-degree death of John Dickson on Christmas Eve, 1936. Wakelin later was restored to good standing by Mayor Leo McLaughlin but resigned May 1, 1938, because of ill bealth.

Brock, chief of the Bureau of Identification of the Hot Springs Police Department, had been on the force for eight years when he was suspended during investigation into the Dickson case. He was tried with six others in connection with Dickson's death and was acquitted of a charge of second degree

Defense Claims Derided by ligrig.

United States Attorney Fred A. Isgrig made a stirring hour and 45 minute plea to the jury for convictions just before Judge Trimble handed down his instructions.

He belittled the defense testimony, claiming the only witnesses hey had introduced against the government's "pile of evidence" was Grace Goldstein and "two women wish owed their tobs to the city administration of Hot Springs." Recalling that defense lawyers had admitted that Grace Goldstein harbor-Marnis but denied there was any conspiracy, the United States attorney esid: "Grace could have harbored him without the help of the Police Department and you known that. She would not have taken the risk."

he charged that the defense was at-tempting to make Mrs. Goldstein the "fall guy" in the case, letting her "take the rap" for all four.

Mr. Isgrig made light of assertions by Grover T. Owens, lawyer for Wakelin, Gle that the latter was "an honest old man." saying that if Wakelin was honest Karey. Harbo pis would never have been harbored in Hot Springs.

"If Joe Wakelin was an honest man: they could not have done it," he said, because he was the boss and they would not have put over a job on the chief. Ir.

"Grace could not protect this gang ir Tracy without the aid of Akers, Brock and other officers acting under instructionalistican from Chief Wakelin."

They talk about her being afraid but if the truth were known I bet Karpis was afraid of her. And all this talk about babies, Christmas presents . . . that is slop, plain slop and, bunk

The district attorney then painted a verbal contrast of Mrs. Goldstein and verbal contrast of Mrs. Goldstein and Mrs. Joseph Armenia of Hot Springs, the government's star witness. The pictured Mrs. Goldstein on one state in "glittering farments" and Mrs. Armenia on the other "a clean woman, soiled with the dift of the kitchen."

"Prostitutes do not wear clothes like

"Prostitutes do not wear clothes like that," he said in commending Mrs. Armenia. She had testified to having seen Karpis and Hunter leave Mrs. Goldstein's house of prostitution hurriedly one night in the summer of 1935 after being tipped off by Akers and Wakelin.

Mr. Isgrig flayed defense lawyers for attempting to besmirch Mrs. Armenia's reputation, and said it was exemplary of defense tactics throughout the trial.

"The whole defense is 'we want out we want out because we are old and have been sinning for a long time'," the district attorney said.

Referring to defense charges that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had failed to capture Karpis although it had hunted him all over the country, Mr. Lagrig said:

"When the F. B. I. found it could no longer trust the police of Hot Springs, he (Karpis) was captured within 30 days and on his way to Alcatran.

Persecution Charged By Defense Counsel.

Mr. Owens appealed to the jury in an hour of final arguments for Wakelin whom he described as "an old man, a man grown old in service to the police force of his city." He said that the government had based its case against Wakelin "solely on suscicion and circumstance" and was attempting to persecute the former police clief and others to make up for the rorst jobs of bungling in the history of the Federal Bureau of Intesti-

Why do they not be men about i He charged that federal men them-elves inadvertently gave the tip-off to Karpis and his rangelers to move out of the Woodcock place on Malvern road admit it" he said

1-576-3-A

March 26, 1936, by sending a messenger

March 26, 1836, by sending a messenger to the Hatterie hotel, run by Mrs. Goldstein, to get pictures of Connie Morris four or five says before the raid.

As Sam Robinson, lawyer for Mrs. Goldstein, had done Friday, Mr. Owens chided the government for failure to bring Connie Morris and Alvin Karpis to the trial.

"Connie Morris could have contoborated everyhing Grace Goldsein laid, but they did not bring her back," his said.

Mr. Owens charged the F. B. I. agents were stretching their authority by bringing certain government witnesses, which he named, into court to testify which he named, iato court to testify which he named, litto court to testify against the defendants. He charged that Oscar Pope Muse, one of the government's star witnesses, had served a jail term for transporting a car across a state line. a state line.

Trial on Other Charges Will Be Delayed.

Akers is also under federal indictment charged with harboring Thomas Nathan Norris, federal fugitive, in 1937, and Mrs. Goldstein is under a separate federal Mann Act indictment, charged with transporting a young woman from Texas to Hot Springs for immoral purposes.

Because of the crowded condition of the court docket, government attorneys indicated that neither Akers nor Mrs. Goldstein would be broungt to trial on the separate charges remaining against them at this term of the court

The cost to the government of the trial was estimated by the district attor ey's office at $15,000.

July Instructed Regarding Evidence.

Judge Trimble, in his charge to the Jurors, defined a has it often said that in conspirate was imposseble to prove the offense by direct testimony and that for this reason the government often had to reply solely upon circumstantial evidence viction Buch evidence warrants a co in criminal cases, provided such a hature as to exclude every bypothesis but that of guilt of the offence imputed to the defendant."

In regard to Mrs. Goldstein's plea that she failed to report Karpis to suthorities because of fear, Judge Trimble said that a criminal act could not be excused because she was threatened with

"There must be something more than harm. mere threats and fear; the coercion and duress of such threats must be to the extent that the free will of the one threatened is overcome by such threats, so that he is not performing or doing his own acts but the acts of the one who threatens."

The charge, in part, follows:

"The defendant, Jewell Leverne Grayson, alias Grace Goldstein, has admitted in her testimony that she learned the true identity of Alvin Karpis, and if after she learned the true identity, you believe that she voluntarily participated in a conspiracy to harbor and conceal Alvin Karpis, she would be guilty as charged in the indictment, essembly of the conceal and the indictment, in the conspiration of the conceal and the indictment, essembly of the conceal and the indictment, in the conspiration of the conceal and the indictment, essembly of the conceal and the con

"You are instructed that if you find from the evidence in this case that the from the evidence in this case that the defendant officers, either or any of them, knowing that a warrant had been issued by the federal government for the arrest and apprehension of Alvin Karpis, and knowing that he was being harbored or concealed in or about the city of Hot Springs, and if you find from the testificiary in this case that either or any of them purposely refrained from apprehending or arresting the said Alvin Karpis or from notifying the federal officers of his presence in or about the city of Hot Springs, with a view to protecting or aiding him, the said Alvin Karpis, to escape apprehension or ar-rest by the federal officers, then you may consider this as a circumstance as to such defendant as to whether or not such defendant entered into and parsuch defendant entered into and par-ticipated in a conspiracy to harbor or conceal the said Alvin Karpis. Mere failure alone of defendant officers to arrest Alvin Karpis did not make them or either of them a participant in the conspiracy charged.

Three Ex-Officers Occupy Same Cell Room in Jail.

Wakelin. Akers and Brock were occupying the same cell room on the second floor of the county jail last.

night.
Wakelin had said that he will ill and had gone to wed. Akers and Frock were had gone to well-had gone to wed. Akers and Frock were reading marazines.

The latter two were cordial to a Gazette reporter, who is well acquainted with them, when he called to see them but neither had much to say. They said that they had not decided whether to appeal from their sentences. Brock, who was said to have been confident that he would be acquitted no matter that he would be acquitted no matter what happened to his co-defendants, appeared to be taking his disappointment philosophically. He was more cheerful than Akers

THE ARKANSAS GAZETTE LITTLE ROCK, ARK. OCTOBER 30, 1938.

NEWS About PEOPLE

Quietly in Evidence.

E. J. Connelley, Federal Bureau of Investigation inspector, who has been in Little Rock the past three weeks quietly watching the Karpis harboraing case trial and conferring with District Attorney lagrig, saw the end of a long trail yesterday afternoon that began for him more than three years ago. During that time he followed various angles through Ohio, Illinois, Minnesota, Arkansas, Louisiana and Florida. There were many sleepless nights along the way and repeated visits to many cities. He and his men, and in two cases, Director J. Edgar Hover, were actively present when the pincipal in that best armed of all gains were taken. There was one aftermore that was spent behind a tree whild Kate ("Ma") Barker shot at him with a machine gun and Fred Barker rifle. There were long fruitiess watches, good guesses and bad guesses, and long days in crowded courtrooms. Yesterday, when the last of the loose ends of the case were finally tied with four convictions in Federal court, 41 persons had been accounted for. Alvin Karpis and Harry Campbell are serving life sentences in Alcatraz Prison. Fred Hunter, the other leader who was in Arkansas, is in the same prison for 27 years. The other leaders and those of the 41 who halbored, handled the money or aided the gang are convicted or dead.

Mr. Connelley is one of six inspectors who work directly under Mr. Hoover. Since entering the Karpis case he has worked on several other kidnapings, among them the Stoil case in Louisville. Ky. the Weyerhauser rawson rase in Tacoma. Wash, and the lash kidnapping and murder at Miami. His. With 18 years in the service and swell stories that he refuses to tell, the a service that he refuses to tell, the past libree weeks collected for simpelf loss of friends about the Federal building. He may or may not have left Little Rock. Where? Ask Mr. Hoover—who will quite courteously tell you it's none of your business.

7/576/3/

ONA.

ON THE WAY TO TWO YEARS IN PRISON

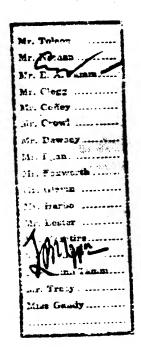

Three former Hot Springs police officers sentenced to two years in prison yesterday on charges of harboring Alvin Karpis are shown at top between United States Marshale V. O. Purvis (left) and J. L. McBure nett (right) being taken into the Pu'aski county jail. Joe Wakelin, former chief of police, is shown next to Mr. Purvis while Brock is to the right of him with ha nd to hat and Akers next to Mr. McBurnett with hat

Herbert ("Dutch") Akers, former chief of detectives is shown at the lower left. Wakelin, at the time he was chief of police, is shown in the upper center, and Brock is shown in the over face. lower center. The picture of Brock was taken before the jury had returned its verdict.

Mrs. Grace Goldstein, Karpis's common-law wife, is shown at the right responding to a "Hi, Grace" from an inmate at the jail.

Arkansas Guilly

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 59.

(P)—A federal district court jury today convicted four Hot springs residents of conspiring to harbor outlaw Alvin Karpis in 1935 and 1936 and fixed their senthnces at two years. They are three Goldstein, Karpis' comranion; former Chief of Police Joseph Wakelin, former Chief of; Detectives Herbert Akers and former Police Lieut. Cecil Brock.

7,576-3A

10.30 38

Co-Defendant in Karpis Co-Defendant in Karpis Case Asserts Gangster Threatened to Kill Her

ARKANSAS DEMOCRAT -LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS -

OCTOBER 27, 1938.

7-576-3-1

Grace Goldstein Tells Federal Court Jury That She Feared to Expose Her Companion.

Denies Charges

Woman Insists on Cross Examination She Was Not Friendly With Hot Springs Officers.

Threats made by Gangster Alvia Karpis against her life kept her from disclosing to officers that her was residing in Hot Springs, Grace Goldstein, operator of houses of ill fame in the resort city, testified is federal court late this afternoop where she is on trial with three former police officers and charged with conspiracy to harbor Karpis and his lieutenants.

"He threatened to kill me if I did

"He threatened to kill me if I did not keep my trap shut," she told the trial.

During vigorous cross examina-tion by United States District At-tion by United States of Interest Hot with Joe Wakelin, former Hot Springs police chief, or Herbert (Dutch) Akers, co-defendants in the trial.

Her life as the common law wife of Karpis was described in detail by the witness who took the stand in her own defense early in the day.

It was a standard of the stand in the witness who took the stand in the witness who took the stand in the own defense early in the day.

It was no the standard of the stand standard of the stand in the standard of the st

There can be no peace if national policy adopts as a deliberate instrugent the threat of wall over the persecuted wenderers with no place and the threat of millions of helpless and peace the first of wall over the peace and the threat of millions of helpless and world of millions of helpless and peace of the peace o

AS RAID OF HIM. GRACE DECLARES OF ALVIN KARPIS

(Continued from Page 1.)

Close to FBI Office.

The crowd laughed. (Th Buick agency is at Third and Broadway, while the FBI office is in the Rector agency is at Third and Broadway, agency is at Third and Broadway, while the FBI office is in the Rector building in the same block, on the corner of Third and Spring streets.)

She said Karpis left during the summer to be gone two months, but returned early because "he couldn't stay away from the baby." She said he exprained that he was homesick.

The baby, she said, was named James Edward, the last name being for Karpis, who was known as Ed Parker at that time. The baby was adopted by a young couple with her agreement, she said, and that they often visited it. The baby died in May, 1937, she related.

"Start at the very beginning, from the time you first knew the men later learned to have been Karpis and Fred Hunter, and tell the jury what happened," Robinson directed.

"They first came to my house in June, 1935, They were wearing what what happened," Robinson directed.

"They first came to my house in June, 1935. They were wearing what looked like fishing clothes."
"They were at 123 Palm street frequently?"
"Yes."

"Yes."
"They were good spenders?"
"Yes, they seemed to have plenty of money."
"Did you begin to go steadily with the of these men?"
"Yes."
"How did it happen?"
Offered Her $200 s Week.
"Ed (Karpis) invited me to go out

Offered Her $200 a Week.

"Ed (Karpis) invited me to go out with him, and at first I refused, because I was going steady with an old man who was providing me with plenty of money. I explained this to him and he asked me if I could live on $200 a week. I told him I had a lot of extra expenses but I thought that would be enough."

"What other expenses did you have?"

"Well, I had to support my mother and a younger brother in Texas."

"Where were these two men living when you first met them?"

"They had a cottage near Carpenter dam on Lake Hamilton."

She told shout how Karnis and

She told about how Karpis and Hunter went on a trip in October, 1935, as had been brought out in previous testimony.

"Did you know who they were then?"

then?

"I had become suspicious. I read in a paper about an investigation at Mrs. Dyer's about some gangsters who were thought to have been there. I thought it might have been them."

She related how Harold (Hunter)

She related how Harold (Hunter) She related how Harold (Hunter) returned first, coming to Little Rock on a passenger plane and on to Hot Springs in a cab. He stopped at the Marquette hotel. Later, she said, he came to her place (then the Hatterie hotel) at her request.

"I told him that night I had some

Reer DUD

centrated on a seven and one-halfmile front between the communicatons centers of Sensens and Clempotractos, south of Madrid, insurgents failed similarly two days ago in an effort to break through government effort in that area.

Yes. Once he came to one of my es and told me to move because the neighbors had complained."

Was Akers ever at any of your house?"

houses?"
"Yes, he came to 1338 Central avenue once to look for some 'hot' gurs."
"Was he ever at the house on Palm

"Yes, he came there several times to collect on some diamond rings Connie Morris (Hunter's girl friend) and I bought from him. We bought them on time payments and made payments when we had the bought them on time payments and made payments when we had the money."

"Did you ever tell your girls that you had paid the law $25 and that they were going to have to get busy?" (This statement had been made by a government witness.)

"I did not."

"Was Akers ever at the Hatterien, "Yes, he came there late in Marca, 1936, with some men he introduced as postoffice inspectors."

"Did anybody visit you at the Clubb street address?"

"Only Karpis and his friends."

She told how Karpis had given her money to buy a new Buick coupe shortly before Christmas, 1935. She said she had plenty of money to buy licenses for the car, but that the new ones were not out. She said she explained this to Wakelin—"whom I hardly knew"—and he found some for her to use. She said she came to Little Rock January 2, 1936, and purchased new ones in her own name.

(Previous witnesses had testified.)

(Previous witnesses had testified that Wakelin had loaned her the plates.)

In the account, she described frequent trips with Ka'pis, to visit her family near Paris, Tex., to the Texas Gulf coast on fishing trips, to Ohio by airplane, and others. She said

Karpis gave her "about $2,000" to do her Christmas shipping with.

Karpis Sta fed in House.

She said they rented the Woodcock place (which was raided by FBI agents March 30, 1936), during the latter part of January and moved into it in the middle of February. She said she stayed there until a night or two before it was raided.

raided.

"Karpis seldom got out of the house. I did all the shopping, and he would give me a certain length of time in which to return. He told the proper to turn into the driveway me never to turn into the driveway me never to turn into the driveway when there was a car in sight.

"I came in one night and Connie and Hunter were fighting. He beat her up good, and she said she was going to try to get away. She went to town with me the next day and went to the Hatteria.

"Somebody told her the next day that some postoffice inspectors were looking for Hunter. I was scared to death and went back to the Woodcock place to tell Karpis. "Go back and get her and bring her here," he told me. So I went back to town, using a long and little used road.

using a long and little used road.

"Karpis told me he and Hunter would be parked by the road to see if anybody was following me when I returned, but not to stop if I saw them. I got Connic and brought her back to the Woodcock place."

They Fled Frem Fines.

He returned Connie to the Woodcock place, she said, and Ed and Harold asked her what she had told the postoffice inspectors.

I was afraid of them and they said they were going to leave and told Connie she had to go or clear I thought they might kill her, the related.

related.
After remaining at the Woodcock place that afternoon, Ed packed some clothing, she said, but "Comis left with just what she had on."
"Harold and Connie left together that night after dark in his Ford coupe and Ed left in his Buick secan. I stayed there and went back to the Hatterie the next day."
She related then taking a maid to the place and removing her things, including two alligators.
"You mean alligator bags?" Mr.

the place and removing her things, including two alligators.

"You mean alligator bags?" Mr. Robinson asked.

"No, two live alligators about 18 inches long. I was scared to death and the maid was, too, and we had a terrible time getting them in a box," she said, relating she released the two alligators in the lake.

"The first time I talked with the postoffice inspectors was at the police station. Mr. Akers called me there and I walked into the chief's office and met Akers, Brock and three men introduced to me as postoffice inspectors. They showed the some pictures of the gang, but it I didn't identify any of them. I was there all afternoon and heard Akers call the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Little Rock while I was there," she testified.

She met Wakelin that night, she said, and was told by him that the postoffice inspectors had been to see him and he urged her "to tell the trufh."

The next day, she related, was Sunday, and Akers and the postoffice inspectors had been to see him and he urged her "to tell the trufh."

The next day, she related, was Sunday, and Akers and the postoffice inspectors "made several trips to my place but I didn't identify any pictures."

On the following day, which was the day of the raid on the Woodcock my place but I didn't mentify any pictures."

On the following day, which was the day of the raid on the Woodcock place, she said, Akers and Wakelin and B. L. Dameron, FBI agent, who took part in the investigation, "came into my room, looked through Connie's things and found a roll of films and took her laundry marks."

She became worried about her dog about this time, she said, and took the dog to her home in Texas, making a roundabout trip by way of Benton, Malvern, DeQueen, making another trip to Texas a day or two after the return from the first trip. On the second return trip, her car was overturned on the road near Kirby, she said.

ARKANSAS DEMOCRAT

LITTLE ROCK, ARKA WEAS

OCTOBER 27, 1938.

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS -

OCTOBER 27, 1938.

The Three Come Back.

"About a week after the raid, Ed,
Harold and Connie came back to Hot Springs and phoned me to meet them on the highway. I rented a them on the mean to built.
They must have thought I had been caught for they came down the road sand found me. We drove to a tourist and found me. We drove to a tourist spent the night but I didn't go on spent the night but I didn't go on with them the next day as I had with them the next day so on spent the night but I didn't go

"We bought a new car and went fishing at Biloxi, Gulfport and at Sarasota, where the American Le-gion was holding a convention," she said.

gion was holding a convention," she said.

At Sarasota, they joined an American Legion "fishing rodeo" for two days, renting a yacht at $50 a day for that time. When it was over, she had caught a large fish and they wanted my picture for the happers but Ed wouldn't let them happers but Ed wouldn'

Asked if there was anything else she could tell of her activities, she said "there is nothing more I can think of."

She was excused shortly after noon, having talked almost continually since 9:30 a. m. except for a 10-minute recess about 11 o'clock. Three Given Freedom.

Three Given Freedem.

Defense counsel for the four remaining defendants launched into their defense immediately after Judge Trimble denied their motions for directed verdicts of not guilty.

After arguments lasting more than two hours in the judge's office, Judge Trimble held that the government failed to produce corroborative inent failed of any conspiracy to failed Alvin Karpis. The case with respect to Stover was declared very much the same."

Court attaches expressed belief that elimination of three of the de-

Court attaches expressed belief that elimination of three of the defendants would storten the trial considerably. Many of some 35 witnesses summoned by the defense were to testify for Mrs. Dyer, Loftis and Stover. The trial may reach the jury by Friday night or Saturday.

The courtroom remained fined with spectators from the time of the noon recess until 4:15 p. m., when the court was reconvened after the arguments in the judge's chamber.

the court was reconvened after the arguments in the judge's chamber.

Defense Attorney Grover T.
Owens called the first witness for the defense. She was Mrs. E. L. White, director of the Garland county welfare department.

"Do you know Mrs. Vada Nyberg?" Owens asked.

(Mrs. Nyberg, a Hot Springs sales.

berg?" Owens asked.

(Mrs. Nyberg. a Hot Springs saleslady, was a government witness Tuesday. She testified she had seen Karpis at a cottage he rented on Clubb street and had given the information to Chief Wakelin. At that time Owens brought out that she had been involved in a Hot Springs municipal court case in an effort to municipal court case in an effort to show that she might have been prej-show instead and indeed.)

"I do," the witness replied.

Said She'd Get Even.

"Did she make the statement that when she came to court in Little Rock this fall she would get even with Wakelin?"

"The certainly did."

"She certainly did." Cross-examining the witness, grig said:
"Did Wakelin have anything to do with that case in municipal

"I don't know. I wasn't in cour "When were you subpoened in this case?"
"Yesterday?"

"Do you have a political job?"
"No; civil service."
"But you are indebted to Mayor McLaughlin?"

McLaughlin?"
"I certainly am not."
"You are employed by the state administration?"
"I am not. I am employed by the state welfare department. I am under the supervision of Miss Haynie."

nie."
"Well, she is appointed by the governor, isn't she?"

governor, isn't she?"

"Why, I thought she was selected by the state welfare board," the witness replied.

Mrs. White was followed to the witness stand by Mrs. Ada E. Smith, Hot Springs probation officer. Owens asked her the same question about Mrs. Nyberg's alleged threat to get even with Wakelin; and she answered in the affirmative.

"You are also a pet of the city administration, are you not?" Isgrig asked her.

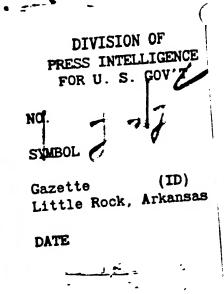

"I am not," she replied. "I hold a job under the county judge."

Judge Trimble sustained defense objections when Isgrig asked her:

"You could not hold your job without Leo McLaughlin!"

The defense failed to introduce into court records a Hot Springs municipal court docket when Emmett Jackson, Hot Springs city clerk, was called to the stand. Purpose of this proposed famous intentions was this proposed fers not announced.

C

WITNESS NAMES DEFENDANTS AS KARPIS VISITORS

Neighbor Reviews Activities.

Four of seven Hot Springs residents charged with conspiracy to harbor Alvin Karpis, one time Public Enemy No. 1, in the resort city in 1935 and 1936, were pointed out by a government witness yesterday as having visited at the Club street cottage occupied by the gangster and Mrs. Grace Goldstein, his common law wife, in December, 1935 and January, 1936.

The witness, Mrs. Philip David, now of Washington, D. C., identified the visitors as Herbert ("Dutch") Akers, former Hot Springs chief of detectives; Joseph Wakelin, former police chief; John Stover, manager of the Hot Springs airport, and Mrs. Goldstein.

The trial moved more slowly than during any of the previous five days. during any of the previous live days.

Questioning and cross examination of two girls formerly employed in Mrs.
Goldstein's houses of prostitution and testimony of Mrs. David taking up most of the time. The government is expected to complete its testimony are today

Extended cross examination of Mrs.
David by first one, then shother, of the defense lawyers kept her on the or tomorrow. stand for more than an hour. The lawyers inquired at length into details of the ocasions when she saw the defendants enter the Karpis cottage. دە . كىلىگانىسىنىڭدادىن ي<sup>ۇ</sup>يۇپىدى . . .

mess Watched Visitors at Cottage.

The witness testified her name at the time was Mrs. Toby Fincel and that she lived at 202 Fincel avenue, on the property adjoining that of the cottage occupied by Karpis and Mrs. Goldstein. She said the two went under the name of Mr and Mrs. Smith of Dalles, Tex. Mrs David told the jury that Akers and Wakelin drove up to the Karpis-Goldstein cottage "just before they moved away the latter part of samu-

Stover came on two occasions, she said. The first time he drove out alone in a Plymouth sedan, remained in the house about 20 minutes, then emerged with Karpis and drove off.

"About a week later," she testified,
"I saw Mr. Stover go in with a lady and another gentleman."

At this point, Grover T. Owens, defense lawyer interrupted to request that she stace the jury instead of the P.

On cross examination, Mr. Owens Have you ever worked for the P. : beriupat

B. L?" "No," she replied. "Has your husband ever worked for the P. B. L?"

"Have you any feeling against any of the defendants?"
"I have not," she mid.

"Were you not nearly beaten to death by your husband and were you not fined for disorderly conduct at your house for engaging in a fight with your husband?"

your nusuand?
"I have never been arrested," she declared emphatically," and my husband never struck me in my life."

Mr. Owens repeated the question in several forms as to the alleged light with her husband, but Mrs. David emphatically denied each interrogation except that her husband was taken down to police headquarters and docketed on a charge of being drunk.

Sam Robinson, lawyer for Stover took over the questioning and inquired into considerable detail as to where she had seen Stover previously and to the respective location of her house and that occupied by Karpia,

Mrs. Goldstein Suspected Akers of Double-Cross.

Testimony that Mrs. Goldstein sus-pected Akers of giving her the "double-cross" in the purported conspiracy to harbor Karpis came from blonde Jewell narror Karpis came from bionde Jeweil Gretta Gilstrap, formerly employed in Mrs. Goldstein's houses of prostitution, making her second appearance on the witness stand.

She said the talk of a suspected double-cross came following Karpis' arrest in New Orleans during F. B. I, investigations.

"She said she felt like "Dutch" was double-crossing her," the Glistrap girl said. "Things she had said were of back to her from the F. B. I. agents."

One of the jurors interjected at this point to ask the witness to repeat the answer.

The witness said that when P. B. I. agents began an investigation into Kar-pis' stry in Hot Springs, Mrs. Goldstein expressed fear that "her people" might get mixed up in it.

get made a trip home," she said, "to see that her brother had gotten rid of the shirts belonging to Ed (Alvin now whether Grace acquainted with United States Attorn etebr Stover? inquired. ong had she known his Neve. Wi went out to the airport through her husband, who had with in a garage in Net Strategy. Yes. in a garage in Hot Springs. She then related of a scheme deviby a man she described as Hersch Brock whereby he and Connie Morri another girl working for Mrs. Goldster who was the sweetheart of Fred Hunts a Karpis lieutenant, would turn in the gangsters and claim the reward effects for their capture."

"Connie became scared," she added
"and told Grace." "and told Grace."

The Gilstrap girl said that a few data after Brock had presented his plan, the place where Karpis and his gang were place where Karpis and his gang were staying on Malvern road was shot by F. B. I. agents.

On cross-examination, Mr. Owens Mrs. Goldstein had any other "old sass when the witness who were witness who were the witness who were the witness where we will friends" who visited her during her residence in the Virginia apariments.

"Yes, I do," the witness replied, Beveral of Mrs. Goldstein's former employes had made reference to the fact that Mrs. Goldstein spoke of Wakelin as "the old man."

Child Identified Picture of Karpis.

First concrete evidence that my of the defendants knew Karpis' tentity the defendants knew Karpis' tentity the defendants in Hot Springs came in during his stay in Hot Springs came in testimony from Della May Jefferies, another of Mrs. Goldstein's girls who other of Mrs. Goldstein's girls who made her second appearance of the trial.

She recalled that she first suspected that the man who had been going under the name of Ed King around Mrs. Goldstein's houses of prostitution was der the name of Ed King around Mrs. Goldstein's houses of prostitution was Alvin Karpis when her sister's eight-year-old daughter, Geraldine, recognized his picture in the December 1, 1935, issue of the Chicago Herald and Examiner.

"I took the Chicago paper home to that she could look at the funny her so that she could look at the funny papers. She saw the picture, jumped up and said, 'Here's a picture of Miss and said, 'Here's a picture of Miss Grace's boy friend."

She said that the child had gone up the Hatterie hotel where Karpis to the Hatterie hotel where Karpis would hang out and that the gangster often would give her money.

"I recognized the picture as that of Grace's boy friend and took it to her."

On objection of defense lawyers,
Judge Trimble ruled that the testimony should apply only to Mrs. Goldstein.
"I talked to her about the picture and told her I thought it was E. King."
the Jefferies girl said.
"What did Mrs. Goldstein resily?" the district attorney asked. "She said she didn't think so." "What were the reasons she gave?"

"She said 'it just is not him.' Then she turned white, looked funny and said the newspaper was mistaken." "Did you tell anyone else about the nicture?" Mr. Isgrig inquired.

7-576-3-

" "Yes, I met Cecil Brock one afternoon shortly after that and told him I thought it was Grace's boy friend. He

I thought it was Grace's boy friend. He said he would check up on R."

"Did you say anything to "Dutch" "Yes, I talked to Akers that light or the next night in a Hot Springs confectionary uptown."

"What did he tell you?"

"He said for me not to talk to any."

He said for me not to talk to anybody about it because they might bump me off."

"Did you ever speak to him about it

"Yes, from December 1, 1935 until again?"

they were caught."
She recalled that on one occasion she was at the Hot Springs police station; and had pointed out to Akers Karpis' picture hanging on the wall of the sta-

"Did you tell him about Karpis livtion. ing out on the lake?" "I told him they had a cottage out

She added that she had informed on the lake." Akers about the gangsters having given Mrs. Goldstein a wrist watch and an automobile and "everything that I could think of."

Defense Motion For Mistrial Overruled.

The defense made a motion for a mistrial while the government, attempted to show that Akers assisted in fied to snow that Akers assisted in Hernarcing houses of prostitution in Hot Springs. Judge Trimble overruled the motion but held that the government could not continue with this line of

"At the time you went to 123 Palm street. did you go there to olen a house of prostitution?" Mr. Isgrig ssked.
"Yes," the Jefferies girl replied.

"Who furnished you the money?"

"Mr. Akers."
At this point Defense Attorney E. L. McHaney Jr., raised the point that this line of questioning could be "highly prejudicial" and would be "incompe-

"I believe you are right," Judge Trimble said and sustained the objection.

"We wanted to show that Akers financed this girl in a house of prostitution." explained Leon B. Catlett, assistant United States attorney.

Mr. Owens immediately jumped to his feet and moved for a mistrial on the grounds that Mr. Catlett had proceeded with a line of testimony after the court had ruled against it. The motion

Of cross examination, deferse lawwas denied. yers inquired of the Jefferles girl whether she used opiates. She replied she did not use them habitally but only on advise of physicians when she only on advise of physicians when she only on advise of physicians when sick was sick. She said she had been sick shout four times in the past three

Drew Bowers, lawyer for Akers, pro years. ceeded to question her about a visit made to her place by Akers and United States postal inspector.

What did the postal inspector come to see you about," the defense, lawyer inquired. For the same reason that everybody else came to my place," she replied with some heat.

"Where was the postal inspector from?" the lawyer saked. "Tulsa," she replied.

"Did you write to him after he left?"

"What did you write about?" The weather."

"What was the agent's name?" Mr. Isgrig objected and Judge Trim-ble sustained him.

Story Told By Miss Jefferies Corroborated.

Mrs. Velva May Burford of Pine Bluff, sister of the Jefferies girl, followed her to the stand to testify to statements made by the Jefferies girl regarding Karpis' picture in the Chicago newspaper.

David B. Nelson, employed by the Chicago Herald and Examiner, was placed on the stand to identify the paper introduced as an exhibit.

Mary Williams, employed in Mrs.

Goldstein's house of prostitution at the Hatterie hotel from October 8, 1935, to May 12, 1936, told the jury that Mrs. Goldstein went to see her mother in Texas in October, 1935, and returned with her niece. Mararet. She said Margaret remained at the Haterie until December 17 or 18 of that year.

She recalled that on another trip she returned with a Great Dane dog which she said Karpis had given

During most of the period that the Williams girl was at the Hatterie she said Mrs. Goldstein stayed outside of the hotel but that she came back in April, 1936, two days before Fig. 1. agents raided the mobister hangout on the Malvern road.

Following the raid, she said Mrs. Goldstein again disappeared and wait gone six or cover days during which gone six or seven days during which time no one knew where she was.

she said Wakelin telephoned reg-larly while Mrs. Goldstein was away. The Gilstrap girl testified to hearing thephone conversations between Wakello and Mrs. Goldstein.

Over defense objections, she testified that Mrs. Goldstein had introduced Karpis to Akers.

Furniture Moved Fro Hotel to Cottage.

Henry Dow Wood, employed by a Hot Springs storage company told of having moved a cedar chest luggage and a carpet to a cottage occupied by Karpis and Huntur at Dyer's landing on Lake Hamilton from the Hatterie hotel and to having moved it back after the ganging moved it back after the gang-sters' departure. He added that he returned Karpis' outboard motor in addition to the articles he had taken to the cottage.

He testified to having seen Akers with Mrs. Goldstein in an automobile and to having seen Karpis at Grace's place in the Virginia apartments. Cedric Cecil Burnett followed him to the stand to testify that he had seen Akers go into the Hatterie hotel and remain about half an hour. He said he hought he also saw Brock go in the hotel but he was not positive of this. Burnett is employed in the Hatterie hat shop, below the Hatterie hotel on Central avenue.

Ernest F. Woodcock testified to having rented a large house on the Malvern road to Karpis and another man about the middle of February, 1936, for $40 per month. He said Karpis paid him six months rent in him did not look like Hunter.

Asked whether Karpis' companion advance. was Hunter, Mr. Woodcock replied that the picture of the man shown

"The man probably was a front," the witness said. He talked like he was small fry."

Last of the day's witnesses was Earl Kail, manager of the Municipal airport at Canton, O. He testified that Stover flew Karpis, Mrs. Goldstein and Mrs. Stover into the Municipal airport at Canton in January, 1936, and that they took off again for Hit Springs the following day. He recalled that Stover told him about making a similar flight to Youngstown, O., only a few days before. At the beginning of yesterday's session Judge Trimble excused the remainder of the petit jury panel until next Monday. Civil cases which had been set for this week will be re-scheduled.

MEN ORLEANS STATES October 21, 1938

raf wir James E. Crown,

Check on Police

THE FEDERAL government succeeds in convicting some alleged harborers of the gangster Alvin Karpis in Hot Springs, Ark the John Laws in many an American city are going to get the shock of their lives. They will learn that protecting or consorting with known criminals, or keeping their eyes closed to their operations, is a dangerous proceeding, particularly if the criminals are hunted

Three of the seven defendants in the curby the FBL rent trial in Little Rock were high police officials of Hot Springs at the time, back in 1935 and 1936, when KARPIS moved about freely; in fact, lived in some style, in the rewort city. One was the town's police chief another the detective chief, the third a police lieutenant. The government charges all had been supplied with photos and detailed descriptions of the former public enemy; that they were criminally derelict in duty, if not to their city then to the nation, by allowing him to roam at will. We believe this is the first time the federal government has moved to prosecute local police officials for slacking on the job. It has been a common custom to proceed against civilians harboring lawbreakers. Now the government is going to enforce the law against negligent law enforcers. The implications are far-reaching. Possibly the govfirnment will find a way to break up an ala iance which is responsible for a good deal of the lawbreaking in all large American cities—the alliance of crooked police officials racketeer politicians and criminals.

KARPIS, It will be remembered, was capaired in New Orleans. He lived here for a rief period, at an apartment house out Canal treet. But it appears that our local gensarmes had a good alibi for not arresting him. They hadn't known he was here. EDGAR HOOVER, boss of the G-men, came here from Washington personally to take KARPIS in cus-

In arresting criminals and protecting cititody. - ` zens from the encroachment of the criminal class and in solving crimes the New Orleans police force under George Reyer has no superior in America. It's against gambling rackets that our police are lax.

In time, perhaps, the government's new offensive against crime and its open or silent partners in high places will be extended into fields of lesser violation, since the trend is loward centralized government. If and when is, the public may have a means of clean ing out petty racketeering, victous gambling, pernicious lotteries, slot machines, political extortion, graft and corruption, election crookery, and a host of other invasions of justice, great and small. None of these can flourish where there is law enforcement, And if police departments, district attorneys and other law enforcers are not enforcing, other law enforcers can be turned against them. In the end we ought to get all of the law enforcement we need for the protection of life. liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

crkansas Democrat

U. S. Offers to Pro-Spa Defendants V Karpis Was a Fug.

7,576-31

papers Containing counts of Despersion Delivered to Sexte.

Editor Testifies

Defense Attorney Loses in Move to Bring Felon Here From Lonely Island Prison.

Nine Hot Springs newspaper carriers were called to the witness stand late today by the government in a move to prove that seven persons on trial on charges of having conspired to harbor Alvin Karpis were aware that the former gangster wasta fugitive.

United States District Attorney United States District Attorney Fred Isgrig sought to show that the defindants had read newspapers carrying accounts of the activities of the erstwhile Public Enemy No. 1, now in Alcatraz federal pilson. The newspaper carriers testified that papers carrying these accounts had been delivered to all the defendants except Mrs. Grace Goldstein.

charles Goslee, general manager of the Hot Springs newspapers, was called to the witness stand to identify the stories about Karpis.

Earlier in the day defense counsel moved unsuccessfully to have the government produce Karpis in federal court here for identification.

Defense thorny Sam oblings to the government identifying Karpis to the jury through photographs made by the Pederal Bureau of insurance of the procedure in the process of the jury through photographs made by the Pederal Bureau of insurance in the process of the jury through photographs made by the Pederal Bureau of insurance in the process of the jury through photographs made by the Pederal Bureau of insurance in the process of the jury through photographs made by the Pederal Bureau of insurance in the process of the process made by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The Fourt overruled the objections to the photographs and nermitted them to be introduced as evidence. Karof, is now serving a life semence at Aleatraz for the $200,000 raisons kidnaping of William M. Hamr. Faul, in January, 1935.

"It is a well known fact," said Robinson, "that Karpis is at present a prisoner of the United States government and we see no reason why Karpis himself should not be produced for purposes of identification at is our contention that i see photographs are not the best evidence because of mer gidnay for $20000 grig sailed against district ou pictures of to police on it was public when the questioning became in-tent, defense counsel objected final the government was attempting to impeach the own witness and was to impeach its own witness and was conducting a cross-examination of the witness the government opened cather-by calling to the stand Miss the fed-ine Murphy, deputy clerk of the ine Murphy at 8t. Paul, Minn, for the eral fourt at 8t. Paul, Minn, for the purplise of identifying and placing in purplise of identifying and placing in evidence the indictment tharging with the Bremer Karris and others with the Bremer kidniping. the witness.

Karyus

"I am cross-examining him," Isgrig exclaimed, and swinging on the witness asked:
witness asked: itness asked:
"Who has been talking to you?"
A. "Nobody."
Q. "You still live in Ho. Springs, "Who has been talking to you?"

A. "Nobody."

Q. "You still live in Ho Springs, don't you?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "And you hope to get back on the Hot Springs police force."

A. "No, sir."

Teld Akers of Karpis.

The next two witnesses were L.

The next two witnesses were I.

M. Chipman and M. E. Marshall, the
M. Chipman and M. E. Marshall, the latter an agent of the FBI and former an agent until January, tha latter an agent until January, the latter an agent until January, it was public magazines an FBI liscussed kidniping Afterwards, E. J. Connelley, FBI agent, took the stand to introduce photographs of Karpis and the gangpis hiding in Springs officers
After the Bre
pis and his gan
country, finally re
about June 1, Goldstein, one of the becoming for frequency
"houses of prostitute declared. He charge and Akers and Brox photographs of Karpis and the gangster's associates.

With the pictures of Karpis, made in 1936, were introduced also pictures of Karpis made in 1930, pictures of Fred Hunter made in 1930
tures of Fred Hunter made in 1930 and 1936, pictures of Harry Campand 1936, pictures of Harry Campand 1936, pictures and 1936, and a bell made in 1930 and 1936, and a bell made in 1930 and 1936, and a latter in Oho. Springs at indervals wisited in Hot Springs at indervals visited in Hot Springs at indervals in 1935 and 1936 before their arrests
in 1935 and 1936 before their arrests
the first two at New Orleans and the indictment in connection with the declared. He charge and Akers and Broc and Hunter were in The testim by will pis and Hunter went Grace Goldstein's house will, that they drove will, that they drove about the they about the grig said. they drove about the dined and went into put where they could be seen when it and out of the town went in and out of the street with ofference of the gangsters and control where it is a second with green and the two wins and "at bne time was in a house and "at bne time was in a house and "at bne time was in a house and Hunter and two women for went to Charging and the two women for went to Charging said Stover "went to Chaid immediately after the gatting several pulled off a robbery he declared that tho sands dollars." He declared that tho sands dollars. He declared that tho sands dollars. He declared that information from government agents information from government agents when questioned about Karpis.

The went of the same that the withheld knew Karpis and Hunter of the same of the rented from Mrs. Dyer, one of the rented from Mrs. Dyer, one of the rented from Mrs. Dyer, one of the rented from the government and contacted from the government on behalf agents were seeking faiting was made of the boat landing making the Grovers. To Owens, making the Grovers. To Owens, making the witnesses that will be presented here witnesses that the head purchased declared that she had purchased we was visiting her parents in Texts. He was visiting her parents in Texts. He was visiting her parents in th Edward Bremer kidnapping in St. Paul in 1934 and Connie Morris is the eighth person named in the contine spiracy indictment here. She entered a plea of guilty and was se itenced in June to a year and a day in prison. got into big-money kidnaping in St.
Paul."
Drew Bowers, a defense attorney, Chipman, who said
cross-examined Chipman, who said
cross-examined Chipman, who said
cross-examined Chipman, but beafter the Bremer kidnaping, but beafter the bench warrant was issued, fore the bench warrant was issued.
Chipman said "Karpis was under Chipman said "Karpis was under chipman said warrant kidnaping suspicion" in the Bremer kidnaping and his activities were being checked. in June to a year.

Inspector Connelley, the inspector in the pursuit of Karpis and assistion in the activities of the investigation of the activities of the introduced the pictures to which the defense objected.

The introduced the pictures to which the defense objected.

The introduced the pictures to which the defense objected.

The introduced the pictures to which the defense objected.

The introduced the pictures of the pictures of the pictures of the picture of the pictu STOCK! Mr. Marshall tlod of taking identi-fication pictures of Karpis and Campbell to Cecil Brock in October, 1935 gives them to Brock in the On cross examination by Grover Campbell to Cecil Brock in October, 1935, giving them to Brock in the 1935, giving them to Brock in the presence of Akers.

Judge Trimble partly sustained an objection by Mr. Owens that the pictorion by Mr. Owens that the pictorion in evidence were not to be tures in evidence were not to be tures in evidence were not to be tures in evidence against any dewith the charges against any defendants except Akers and Brock fendants except Akers and Brock fendants additional testimony resulted in connecting them with the pictures.

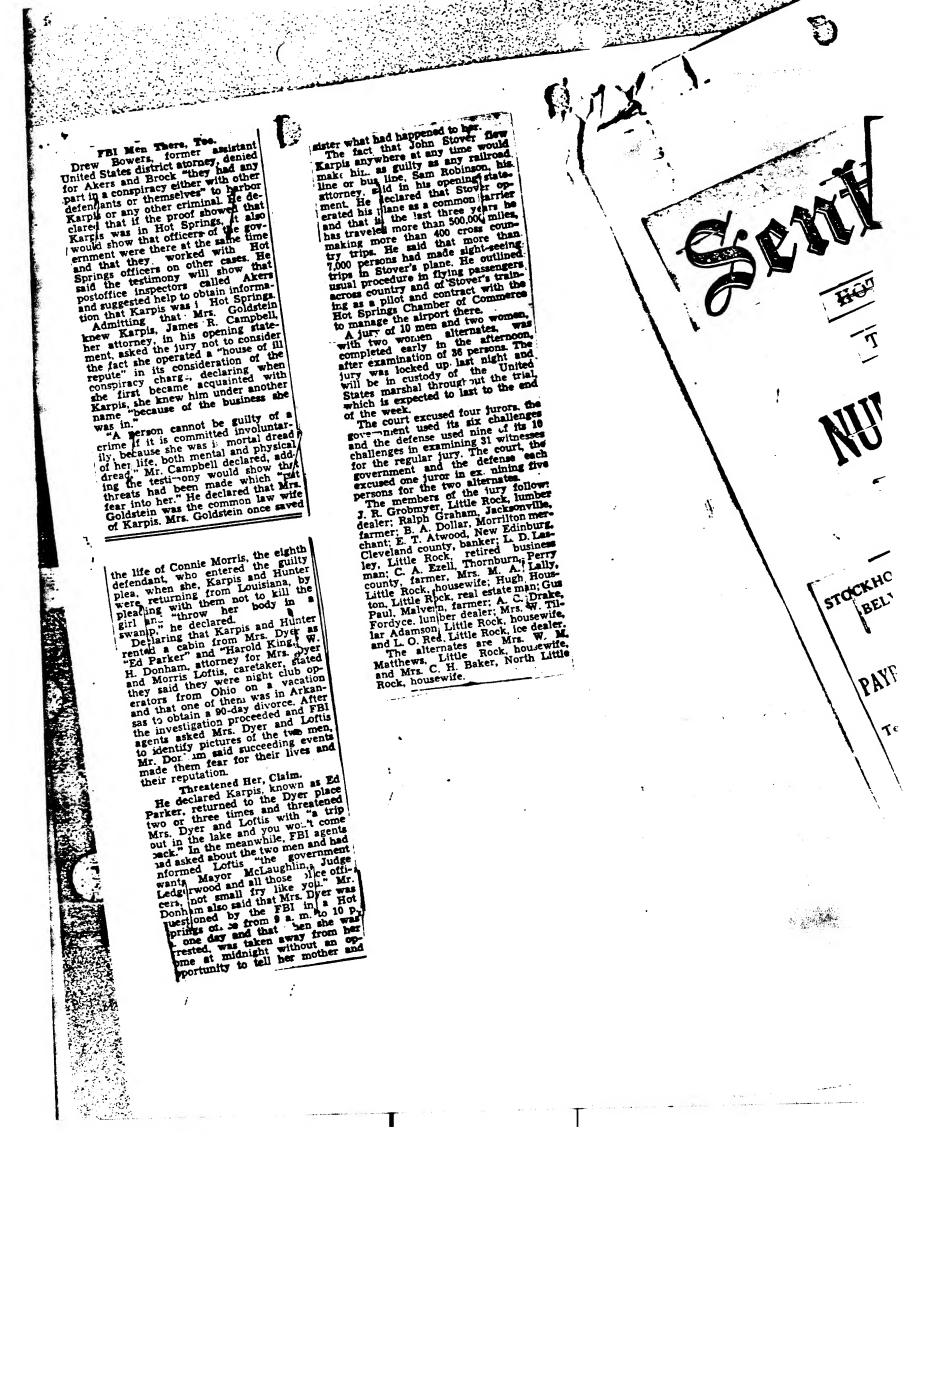

Censpiracy Charges. T. Owens, a defense attorney, inspector Connelley said Karpis had submitted to a face lifting operation submitted to a face lifting operation in the spring of 1934 in an attempt to change his appearance "after the said between the said he said he same his appearance "after the said he same pictures made in 1934, the from the pictures made in 1934, the identification folders sent to peace identification folders. Cert clerk at Hoto Emmett Jackson. city records to Springs, produced city records to Springs, produced city records to springs, which is Joseph Wakelin, Herbert show that Joseph Wakelin, Herbert in three of the defendants, were chief of police, chief of detectives and of police, chief of detectives and police lieutenant, respectively, during lieutenant, respectively, during at the same time.

A. T. "Sonny") Davies was city attention of the same time.

Preston Griffin, a Hot Springs policeman for about 10 years to Janpoliceman for abo in the spring of 1934 in an attempt United States District Attorney Fred A. Isgrig made the government's opening statement yesterday afteropening statement yesterday associated.
Outlining the chirge as completed. Outlining the chirge as eight persons named in it, in lidding eight persons named in it, in lidding Springs, I didn't know it."

He said he could not remember how long it was on display and in response to repeated questions by response to remember telling the he could not remember telling the prosecutor privately several days prosecutor privately several ago that other Karpis pictures were ago that other Karpis pictures were on display in the city, including the postoffice.

postortice.

HOT SPRINGS NATIONAL PARK, ARKANSAS,

TUESPAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 9, 19 37.

EROUS-WITNESSES ARE ED BY SPA PRO

STOCKHOLDERS IN CLUB BELVEDERE ARE NAMED.

PAYROLLS SCANNED

Testimony Introduced to Show Relatives of City and County Officials Connected With Belvedere and Southern Club.

Little Rock, Feb. 8. — (P) — The house committee investigating alleged laxity in law enforcement at Hot Springs tonight delved into the ownership of the gambling rooms at fashionable Club Belvedere, resort show place, and the club's record club's payroll.

With Sam Watt, part owner of Belvedere and its associated club, Southern Grill, on the stand, committeemen repeatedly asked questions designed to establish that the two places operated under

To all these questions, William that he had no P knowledge of any protection He estimated profits from the two places in 1936 at "between 80 and 100 thousand dollars," advising the committee that the books recently obtained would "show the exact figures."

After evidence and testimony had been introduced to show that relatives of Hot Springs officials and peace officers were carried on the clubs' payrolls in various ca-

the clubs' payrolls in various capacities, Committee Chairman William M. Thompson asked:
"Isn't it so that you employed these relatives of officers to keep the officers off four places?"
"I guess the difficers asked to be placed," Watt replied.
Several score Hot Springs real-dents stood in the hallways of the downtown office building where the downtown office building where the committee sat, but the committee again held its session in a small conference room in the offices of John R. Thompson, committer sttorney, admitting only accredited newspaper representatives and legislators from the 18th judicial district in which Hot Springs 10-Rep. James R. Campbell, Garcated.

land, advised the committee that business men are over here with a spokesman and they would like for him to be heard but no immediate action was taken on the request.

Before turning its attention tothe committee heard Mrs. W. Keynes, sunt of John Dickson.

view charges which her family has made that Dickson, Hot Springs jail prisoner, died there last Chiestmas Eve as a result of being battern by Hot Springs officers.

Seven policemen are now under indictment for Dickson's death and Circuit Judge Earl Witt has dis-

Circuit Judge Earl Witt has disqualified himself for their trials, tntatively set for next Monday.

Mrs. Haynes charged that after Dickson was arrested on robbery and assault charges, and lodged in the city jail, she was denied per-mission to see him by Chief of Pe-lice Joe Wakelin.

She said she also appealed to Mayor Leo P. McLaughlin for doctors to attend her nephew after she had received a tip from a police officer that he had been believe

She alleged that Mayor Me-Laughlin, Judge Witt and then Prosecuting Attorney Houston Em-ory promised to investigate but that no investigation was made smill no investigation was made until after Dickson's death.

of Anthon

George Gower, Hot Springs furnitum man, was called and asked by the committee attorney if he Tever saw Judge Witt grunk. "Several times," Gower testified.

In answer to another question, he said:

"I never saw him drunk in court."
Sam Watt, dignified. slow-spoken and past middle age, fold the committee he had lived in Hot Springs for 60 years and had been "in the egambling and clubroom business for quite awhile-since 1904, I. believe."

"At times, I have also invested in real estate and the oil business, he said.

He said he was "interested in the bank roll at Fountain Lake for eight years," and was associated there with a partner from near Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and another from New Orleans.

"How did you operate there without being arrested " he was asked by Attorney Thompson.

"Brother, I don't know," he smiled. Mr. Nolan (identified as one of the partners) was a good outside man and he made arrangements."

He said officers came out to raid several times "and we closed up." "You mean you knew they were coming and closed "That's a hard question to answer," he said.

Asked if anyone beside the partpers shared in the profits, he said: I don't think so. If they did,

Nolan took care of that." He testified he subsequently "became interested in Belvedere."

The interrogation continued:
"Who was interested with you?"

"Must I answer?" "Yes."

"Mr. W. S. Jacobs and Mr. Cleveland Young, and some others had minor interests.

"Who." "Well, Mr. L. D. Cooper-"

"Who else?" "Some of these people were let in probably because they had influence. Mr. Cooper has a lot of influence. I think he was president of the Chamber of Commerce."

"Who else?" "Douglas Hotchkiss."

"Did they all pay for an interest?"
"Some did not pay for an interest."

Who else " Harry Strong, Roscoe Johnson." Because of their influence

"I don't know." Who else - "Archie Ledgerwood"

What was Ledgerwood's in-Perest?"

Twenty-five per cent. How did he get it? Mr. "It was given to him by Jacobs, I believe."

"Why did you consent?" "It was from Mr. Jacobs' interest. I thought it would be beneficial." Does Ledgerwood have relatives in official positions?"

"Judge Verne Ledgerwood is his "Judge Ledgerwood is the munici.

pel judge?" -It that all tirst were in the "Yes."

"Bince then five per cent interest cirib?" has been given to Otis McGraw. I had and kept my 15 per cent interest. Captain William Smith had three and a half per cent, I beto comment: The games were always straight. A straight game is the only way to get business. If you run any other kind, it follows you around and ruins you."

Watt departed from the questions hever."

One committeeman asked Why does the house always operate profitably " "The banking end of any game has a percentage," said Watt. "It only takes time for the percentage to show up." He said that Belvedere records were kept in triplicate, for himself, for Jacobs and for Ledgerwood. In answer to a question he replied that "the same parties are interested in Southern Club." Watt explained that it was the custom at Belvedere to pay its employes "in advance, each day," and that no recorded payroll was necessary. He said many dealers drew $10 to $15 a day.

"We knew all these employes by right," he explained, "and paid them as they came on duty."

"Did you ever pay anyone beside the help," asked the attorney. "I came on late. If it was done, it was done in the daytime," said He supplied the information that Watt.

we financed the Kentucky Club's book, but had no part in the man-agement of that place."

Do you know if the Garland county officers knew you were and souldn't say. Everyone knew

Did you ever see any officials in the gambling rooms?" "Why didn't the officers raid or make arreste at Belvedere?"

"I don't know." there any arrangement about that?"; "I can't say. You are asking me to tell you what I know. I only heard talk.

"Did you hear the other owners say anything about that?"
"I don't know."

"Do you know what it means to pay off officers?" Do you have any information on that " might have but such informstion would not be reliable." "You know you were never bothered " Chairman Thompson then started calling off names of club employes from a list previously supplied by Belvedere:

"I find the name of P. O. Witt," he said. "What relation to the judge "

"There's a Buddy Wakelin on the "Uncle, I think." list. What's his relationship to the chief of police."

"Son." Tex Rutherford, on the list here, is a city fireman, isp't he?"

"And also a watchman at the club." said Thompson.

Asked if "some of these men on the list aren't bodyguards for Mayor McLaughlin," Watt replied: "I don't know."

"Who is Bob Moore on this payroll?"

"He was a captain of police." "I find Curley Evans on the roll," said Thompson. "I believe he was on the force, too. And I see he has made an affidavit in Hot Springs saying he is a Holiness preacher." "He is a pretty busy boy," replied

Chairman Thompson asserted that Watt he found the name of "Mrs. Herbert Akers" and said she was "the wife of the chief of detectives." Asked about the continuity of gambling in Hot Springs, Watt testified that "we did not have any gambling when Scott Wood was circuit judge." Archie Ledgerwood testified that he was one of the partners at Belvedere and Southern Grill. Se said he started as an employe but was told by Jacobs in 1932 wince he had learned the business he could acquire an interest if he raised $12.500

He said he borrowed the money from Ed Ballard, former circus man who met death in a shooting in a Hot Springs hotel room last year. Ledgerwood said he had settled the debt shortly before Bar lard's death.

Asked about his relationship to Municipal Judge Ledgerwood, the witness testified:

"He gave me plenty of hell for being in the gambling business. I told him that all I could find to do on account of my health."

"Why didn't the Hot Springs officers enforce the gambling laws?"

he was asked a "Hot Springs is a resort and peo-ple come here for health and pleasure. Resorts there were closed up once before and the people went

"That is why I believe the effi-cers were a little liberal." "You said big names came to Hot Springs. Who?"

"Lots of big people from Chicago, including practically every big pol itician."

"Ever heard of Al Karpis and his being around the gambling halls?"

"Yes." "Nash?" "Yes."

"Galatas?"

"Yes." "Did the visitors ever win?" "Yes, the club paid one man $27,-000 in one night."

"Did you ever pay off any offi-cers?" Ledgerwood was asked.
"No." he said.

"Fines?"

"No."

"What business connection did Jacobs and McLaughlin have?

"They were only friends."

Sd Haupt, Hot Springs, called next, said he worked at Belvedere seven years but had not been there for the last three years. He said he was formerly a sheriff in Garland county.

"Did you ever see Judge Witt at Belvedere?" asked the committee attorney.

"Yes." Billy Mann, who said he had been a Hot Springs grocer for 15 years, testified that the August primary was conducted "under pressure." He was defeated for constable in that election.

Asked to explain, he said: "I attended what is commonly known as a pressure meeting, held in police court. Judge Ledgerwood and McLaughlin talked. They fold the firemen they expected each of them to account for ten poll tax receipts 'and if you can't get them we can arrange it.'

He charged McLaughlin threatenied to replace a city employe who was quoted as saying he would wrote for whom he pleased.

Mann said he was a candidate for constable, but that his name was "scratched off" the administration ticket.

"I was informed it was scratched off in the mayor's office," he said. "Were you defeated?"

"Yes." He said he was a former police.

L. G. Stanley of Mt. Ida testified man. to the presence of gambling machines "rinning openly" in Montgomery cunty, a part of the 18th district. He said they disappeared after the present investigation started. Roy Hurst, a minister, of Hot Springs, corroborated Mann's testimony about the pre-primary political meeting.

Asked if any laws were "overrun in Hot Springs," he said:

"Yes, the gambling and election He said he had asked city and cireuit officials to stop gambling.

He said fe protested the "pressure meeting" in a letter to Governor

Carl Bailey. Earl Screeton, auditor for the income tax division of the state revenue department, testified he had examined books" and gambling records turned over by the com-

He presented data from 1936 recmittee." ords of various resorts in Hot Springs and Chairman Thompson asked for the total.

Screeton said he did not have the total with him but Thompson

"Don't you believe the net earnasked: ings would total around $332,300?" Yes, I believe it would be something like that." He introduced a 12-page audit in the record.

Before the committee adjourned, it received a group of Hot Springs business men, whose spokesman, Jess B. Murphy, protested against criticisms of Circuit Judge Witt and expressed "faith and confidence in

The committee agreed to meet again Wednesday night.

A stamp collector in Boston recently pasted 18,000 stamps on his automobile, completely covering it. to the second se

McLaughlin Asks City to Observe Boy Scout Week

Paying tribute to the place Boy Scout activities hold in everyday American life, as well as in times of emergency, Mayor Leo P. Me-Laughlin yesterday officially desig-nated this week as "Boy Scout Week." The mayor's proclamation wointed out the character-huilding pointed out the character-building attributes and the effective work in time of national emergencies achieved by this organization which is this week observing its 27th anniversaly.

The mayor's official proclamation: "The Boy Scouts of America, in-corporated February 8, 1910, and chartered by congress June 15, 1916, have during the past 27 years ren-dered notable service to the nation. They have done effective work in this community and throughout the country. During the World war their efforts on behalf of Liberty Loan and War Savings campaigns and other measures were outstanding. In time of distance from the country of the country. ing. In time of distress from flood, hurricane, tornado and other dis-asters they have organized the effectiveness of organized boy service. During the period of economic stress through which the country has just passed, they contributed in many ways to the relief of suffering, and they have rendered noteworthy service in the flood areas this year. The Boy Scouts have not only demonstrated their month to the month of the service in the service in the floor areas the service in the s demonstrated their worth to the na-tion, but have also contributed to a deeper appreciation by the Amedican people of the higher conception of good citizenship.

The objective of the present toYear Program of the Boy Scouts of America is to provide for the nation